Outreach Report

the over 1500 people who prayed for us in the background. God has written so many stories, it would fill a book! We would like to share some of the highlights with you here.

The outreach grows every year

We are amazed at what God has done! Around 350 people joined the ten-day Reach Mallorca outreach. That was 100 more people than last year. It's incredible how the outreach has grown - 200 participants were there for the first time! We are overwhelmed by how many people wanted to experience God by being challenged to share their faith in a very practical way. This year, in addition to our beach services at Ballermann, we also had various other outreach locations on the island and even beyond. A small outreach team was in Lloret de Mar for ten days, a Spanish-speaking outreach team conducted outreaches in Palma and other initiatives were launched. The outreaches with the Streetangels, where we helped tourists who were drunk or had been beaten up, robbed or harassed, took place after midnight until almost sunrise. A fixed team was out and about in the red light district to serve the prostitutes with the love of God. At the beginning of each day, we started out with workshops on vari-le chair" (a normal folding chair on which you could express your wish to God). His broken shoulder was healed on the spot. Because he was live-streaming, 300 other people witnessed this miracle first-hand. We spoke to a young woman sitting on a bench.

We were able to explain the gospel to her and when we asked her if she wanted to make a decision for Jesus, she was very moved and had tears in her eyes. After having prayed for her, she was open to inviting Jesus into her life. We then exchanged contact details with her to accompany her in her first steps of faith.

Two boys from Ireland wanted to be prayed for and said that they would like to pray themselves, but didn't know how it worked and thus asked whether we could pray for them. We explained the gospel to them and it was really fun talking to them.

Baptisms during the beach service

We got to talk to two young ladies and it turned out that they already knew Jesus and used to be in the youth group of one of the leaders here. I took them to ous topics or with free time. In the afternoon, we met in a church in Palma, celebrated services as an outreach team and prayed for the evening. Then we went off to the various locations. We were able to conduct a total of 14 public beach services in front of the "MegaPark" - the largest beer hall with 7000 seats. The beach services actually taking place was a miracle in itself: the 50-page permit had been requested four months before the event and only arrived on the very last day! Hundreds of people were encouraged, many were healed from suffering, dozens made a decision for Jesus and 30 people were baptized. We praise God for this - all glory to Him - and thank the leader and the reunion was full of joy. One of them wanted to be baptized right here. She went to buy spare items of clothing, took part in the service which moved her to tears, and was then baptized by her former youth pastor in front of the Megapark. She wrote to us that this was "the most beautiful evening!" Her father contacted her in the middle of the night from back home expressing his excitement over his daughter's decision. She got a "Reach Mallorca" shirt and together with her friend joined us every night for the rest of her vacation to tell others about Jesus.

Now she even considers enrolling at the Reach Mallorca School. "It really was an encounter for life. God sent you to us!" Ballerman tourist

Among the 17 "internal" baptisms was a woman who had read about Reach Mallorca and had flown here especially for it. A young Scotsman and his family wondered what so many people were doing on the beach. It turned out that he had been reading the Bible for one year and is fully walking with Jesus. The baptisms touched him deeply because he had never seen anything like it and he didn't know any other young followers of Jesus in his home country. The church he had been attending recently is now being closed and converted into a skate park. He took some time off, then came back and wanted to get serious about Jesus.

So we got to baptize him by moonlight, with a crowded restaurant terrace and lots of hotel balconies as witnesses. Now we get him in touch with Christians from Scotland. Afterwards, he wrote that his parents were happy about the spontaneous decision and his father is even thinking about doing the same.

When one group of participants was already on their way to bed, they got into a conversation about God with a Scottish stag party group in our accommodation. They explained the gospel to them and shared their stories with Jesus. Two weeks earlier, the participant had received their name in prayer, having the impression that the group had been prepared. As a result, the sober sister of the bride was baptized in the middle of the night in the sea of Santa Ponca, became free from pain and received the Holy Spirit. She posted the video of her baptism on Instagram with the slogan "TeamGod" and the whole group joined in the celebration - hallelujah!

Basic faith course at Ballermann

A woman was watching the video of the Alpha course and I struck up a conversation with her. I asked her what she wanted God to do in her life and she said that she wanted to be free from her nicotine addiction. During the service, her craving for a cigarette disappeared. One man made a decision for Jesus, read through the whole Gospel of Mark the next day and came to the basic believers course with a few others.

Another man apologized for "only reading 50 pages of the Bible" at 1:00 a.m. after work - he also

Family peace on the party boat

Shortly before the party boat left the harbor, I spontaneously invited a woman and her daughter. The daughter was not in a good mood.

It looked as if they had had a fight. Their mood wasn't any better on the boat and I tried to talk to them. It turned out that the daughter had come to know Jesus through a video on TikTok and had become a believer, but the mother had not. The daughter has no one to share her faith with. It was a God-led encounter because I was able to talk to her about faith. At the end, I was able to pray for her mother and the relationship between the two of them. The atmosphere changed and the two were at peace again. The conversation moved the mother so much that she immediately invited me to her next family vacation.

Outreach with the Spanish team

A Mallorcan woman from the church burst into tears on stage, fell to her knees and thanked God for the participants of Reach Mallorca: "You don't know what this means to us! You are a blatant answer to prayer! We have been praying for 17 years that Mallorca would change from alcohol tourism to Holy Spirit tourism." In the capital Palma, we did an outreach with a mirror and asked people what they see. We had cards with words like fears, panic, depression, but also hope, peace, love. We had super deep conversations with this tool and were able to share the years that something like this would be possible! The municipality even provided us with a stage and 300 chairs.

Participants experience God

I met a few women of faith who live on the island. They were very touched by our beach service and I invited them to our worship evening in the cave. They came and took another man with them. He was totally touched and told us that he had had a prophetic dream years ago where he would worship God with Germans in a cave. His dream came true! At the beginning of the outreach, I asked God to allow me to experience healing, conversion and baptism. Already on the third day I experienced all of it several times! I am so blown away. I wish this outreach never ended!

Healings in the ham Schinkenstrasse

Three boys came up to us and all wanted prayer on the wonder chair. They thought it was really cool what we were doing here. We were allowed to bless everyone. Afterwards, they were so filled with love that they asked me to sit on the chair and they prayed for me. At the end, they even wanted to sing a song together. We all sang the song "Yeshua" together, full of joy and strength, right in front of the "Bierkönig" on Schinkenstrasse. A young woman came up to us, sat down on the chair and said she needed a miracle. Her boyfriend had left her here on Mallorca and she was very sad. We were able to encourage her and tell her that God is good and she said that she had also read that in the Bible today. In the "Schinkenstrasse" a group of boys came past our "miracle chair". They persuaded a colleague to sit on it. We prayed for a man who was about to have a knee surgery due to a torn cruciate ligament. After the prayer, he jumped around, his colleagues were horrified and said: "That's not possible, he couldn't even walk properly earlier!" Then the next man in the group sat down on the chair. Thanks to this supernatural healing, the boys were suddenly totally open to the gospel and faith.

Experiencing God at the Ballermann

After the sermon at the beach service, people were able to bring sacks of life's burdens to the cross. I approached a woman who was doing just that. She told me that last year, her life had looked exactly like the play shown in the church service. She had suicidal thoughts and went on vacation here to get away from it all and to seek God. She didn't know that we were here to hold church services, but she found God here. We saw a man who was filming the beach service and got talking to him. He said that he had really enjoyed it. It turned out that he is a DJ at the "Bierkönig". He was so enthusiastic that he wanted to announce the Ballermann Church in this beer hall! One evening I had a very long conversation with a Muslim. I had the impression that I was challenging him and asked if I could pray that Jesus would show himself to him as the Son of God. The next morning he texted me about how he dreamed of people going to a church and inviting him. I struck up a conversation with a young man and asked him if he had anything to do with faith. He confirmed this and said that he always has a Bible with him. It was a mini Bible that he had received last year from someone from the outreach. Two people from Reach Mallorca School were at a swingers club a few weeks ago and spoke to the owner. That evening surprisingly, he was very open, talking about his life and his accidents and challenges. He found his wife dead a few years ago.

They were able to pray for him and will bring him a German Bible. I was in charge of guarding the power generator of the beach service. While I was sitting there, a man came up to me and asked what we were doing here. I started to tell him about Jesus. But he soon left again. 20 minutes later he came back with his buddy and said to him: "That's the one who told me about Jesus. That's really cool. God loves us!". They were both really excited and stayed until the end of the service.

«Countless people were changed forever!»

Outreach leader

After the last beach service, over 20 people came forward and symbolically gave God a "Blanco signature" on a whiteboard as a sign that they wanted to commit their whole lives to God. Some tearfully confessed their sins, others knelt before the cross and others prayed to be filled with God's Spirit. We are excited to see what story he will continue to write with them! Wow, thank you Jesus for what you have done! We praise and glorify God for His work. And we thank you for your interest, for all your financial support and for your prayers. Maybe see you next year?
